

GRACE MARTIN BIO

Grace Martin has been dancing since the age of ten. She is trained in many styles of dance including jazz, ballet, lyrical, pom, hip hop and contemporary. While training at Precision Dance Company, Grace found her love and passion for dance. She pursued many opportunities to further her training including being a member of the South High Dance Team. She earned her way to serve in many leadership capacities at Precision Dance Company including Team Captain and Assistant Coach to the Junior Competition Team. Grace performed and competed large group, small group and solo routines and earned numerous awards and titles for her performances. In 2015, she received an exclusive invitation to represent the United States at the Miss Dance Drill Team USA competition in Tokyo, Japan on Team USA. Grace currently attends California Baptist University (CBU) in Riverside, California, where she is a member of the CBU Dance Team. She has plans to pursue a career as a social worker, specifically working with youth, and continue to find opportunities to fuel her passion for dance in the professional arena.
