

FELICIA VANN, EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Felicia Vann has been dancing since the tender age of six. She has trained at Katnap Dance Center, The Edge Performing Arts Center, the California Dance Center and the Los Angeles School of Gymnastics. In 1998, she received her Bachelor of Arts degree in both Dance and Psychology from Loyola Marymount University and has worked with professional choreographers in the industry such as Denise Leitner, Cindre Che, Luretta McCray, Scott Hertzlerling and Eddie Garcia.

Aside from being the founder and lead choreographer for the Precision Dance Company, Incorporated, a 501c3 non-profit organization, Felicia has coached and choreographed for numerous high school dance and cheer teams across California including Westchester High School, Hamilton High School, Palos Verdes High School, P.V. Peninsula High School, Pasadena High School and Bishop Montgomery High School where she currently serves as the Program Advisor for the JV and Varsity Song Teams. She has expanded her work to the music industry by contracting with Drop Soul Productions to choreograph for up and coming recording artists. In addition to her choreography credits Felicia has performed with the Wild Abandon Dance Company, the Fusion Dance Team, the Loyola Marymount University Lions Cheer and Dance Squad, L.A.C.E.S. Senior Dance Team and the Warren Easton High School Cheerleaders. Felicia has choreographed performances for several national business conventions in New Jersey, Atlanta, and Virginia, several opening performances for title pageants and has coordinated many local dance concerts featuring the Precision Dance Company. Felicia's choreography has also been featured in professional dance showcases for various dance studios and organizations.

Felicia has over 25 years experience teaching and training inspiring dancers in jazz, hip hop and modern dance techniques. Felicia works regularly as a dance competition adjudicator for Miss Dance Drill Team USA, L.A.'s Best and the Los Angeles Unified School District and teaches master classes at local dance and performing arts schools in the Southern California area. Felicia's life work has been training and inspiring dancers of all ages. She remains committed to the development of young people and continues to positively impact the lives of her students.

In addition to her dance accomplishments, Felicia is a loving wife to Robert Lee Vann, Jr., an engineer and entrepreneur and now a proud mother to Robert Lee Vann, III. Robert and Felicia have been married 17 years. Together, they fuel the vision for Precision Dance Company and run a successful ecommerce business.
